

Funeral Assistance Policy and Procedures of the Quileute Tribe

Chapter 1: General Provisions

Section 1.1 Title

This policy shall be cited in full form as the “Funeral Assistance Policy and Procedures of the Quileute Tribe” and in short form as the “Funeral Assistance Policy”

Section 1.2 Policy

Subject to available funding and budget limitations, it is the policy of the Quileute Tribe to provide a limited amount of funeral, dinner and travel assistance in the event of the death of a Tribal Member. An employee of the Quileute Tribe designated as the Benefits Coordinator will administer these benefits as approved. The benefits outlined in this policy do not apply to eligible persons who have died before approval of this policy.

Section 1.3 Purpose

The purpose of this policy shall be to:

- A. Specify the criteria and procedures for providing funeral assistance to the families of deceased Tribal Members
- B. Outline the guidelines for providing funds to help with dinner and flower assistance to the families of deceased Tribal Members and community members.

Section 1.4 Definitions

- A. Direct Funeral Expenses: Expenses necessarily incurred to facilitate the disposition of a deceased Tribal Member.
- B. Enrollment Office: The Enrollment Office of the Quileute Tribe where Tribal Member enrollment information is located.
- C. Family Unit: A group of people who are related to each other by blood, adoption, marriage or otherwise known as “significant other” residing within the same home.
- D. Community Member: A person who has resided on the Quileute Reservation or within the boundaries of Clallam and Jefferson Counties for at least three years and is part of the Family Unit of a Tribal Member
- E. Funeral Service Providers: Any business, group or individual that provides a funeral service for the deceased. This term does not include other services that the family may request such as cooks, servers, singers, drummers, speakers, clergy, pallbearers, and musicians.

- F. Primary Contact: The person who is responsible for marking the funeral arrangements, signing the work order at the mortuary, and paying for any costs above and beyond benefits offered under this policy.
- G. Tribal Member: An enrolled member of the Quileute Tribe or non-enrolled infant age two years or younger who is otherwise eligible for enrollment with the Quileute Tribe.
- H. Benefits Coordinator: A person employed and designated by the Quileute Tribe as responsible for administering benefits under this policy.

Chapter 2: Benefits

Section 2.1 Eligibility

 - 2. Date and place of death.
 - 3. Date and place of funeral, burial, or cremation.
 - 4. Primary contact person's name, address, and phone number.
 - 5. Name(s) of next of kin, executor of estate or will, if any.
 - 6. Veteran's information, including what branch of service and any veteran benefit insurance information; and
 - 7. Name and phone number of mortuary handling the funeral, if applicable.
- C. Allowable Costs: A maximum of $6,000.00 per Tribal Member for funeral assistance shall be provided for direct funeral expenses, which includes the following allowable expenses.
 - 1. Services provided by the mortuary, cash advances required by the mortuary, transportation of deceased, cremation costs.
 - 2. Caskets, wooden grave liner boxes, cremation urns.
 - 3. 2 death certificates purchased through funeral arrangement process and to the Tribal Member Benefits Coordinator, one will be forwarded to the Enrollment Office and one will be given to the family. Any additional copies will not be paid for by the Quileute Tribe, and

4. Cemetery costs (as applicable)
5. Travel expenses for funeral or arrangements for extenuating circumstances at the discretion of the General Manager

D. Costs Not Covered by the Quileute Tribe

1. Any expense over the $6,000.00 limit per deceased.
2. Death notices or obituaries.
3. Giveaways, gifts or payment items, including expenses related to fees and/or gratuities for a funeral officiator, soloist, music, cooks, servers, drummers, etc.
4. Headstones, grave markers or any memorial or stone setting expenses and
5. Any endowment care funds for the upkeep of cemetery plots, crypts, or other options for burial.

E. Billing and Payment

1. All payments will be made directly to the provider(s) except as noted in this subsection.
2. The primary contact shall make all of the arrangements for the funeral including the billing and shall have the provider submit an itemized billing statement to the Benefits Coordinator. To verify who that is, you can ask at the front desk of the Tribal Office or contact the Tribal Enrollment Office for information.
3. In the event that funeral costs have been paid in full prior to the Quileute Tribe making payment, the individual(s) who paid for the funeral of a Tribal Member is eligible for reimbursement for allowable expenses by providing an itemized receipt to the Benefits Coordinator. Reimbursements will be paid out equal to the receipts provided for allowable expenses only and only up to the maximum Tribal allowance of $6,000.00 for direct funeral expenses. AIOI of the inclusions and exclusions that apply to the burial benefit will also apply toward funeral expenses that are reimbursed to the person who paid for the funeral.

- F. Prepaid Funerals: Upon the death of a Tribal Member, if a funeral for that Tribal Member has been prepaid, the Quileute Tribe will reimburse up to $6,000.00 to the person that prepaid for funeral expenses, provided they submit receipts showing they paid for funeral expenses. If the allowed expenses prepaid do not exhaust the Tribal allowance of $6,000.00, the Tribe will make the remainder available to the family for direct funeral expenses allowable under this policy. If the funeral has already taken place and the deceased Tribal Member is the person who prepaid for the funeral, no reimbursement will be made to the family or the estate. All inclusions and exclusions that apply to the funeral assistance benefit will also apply toward the funeral expenses that have been prepaid and any remainder of benefit made available to the family.

Section 2.4 Dinner/Clothing Assistance and Flower Assistance

- A. Dinner assistance/clothing assistance is provided to help the family to provide a community dinner to honor the memory of the deceased. If family chooses not to put on a dinner or spends less than the $500.00 provided by the Tribe, they may spend the money on clothing for the deceased or family members to help prepare for the funeral.
- B. Dinner assistance/clothing assistance benefit is provided to the primary contact to distribute as necessary to meet the needs of the family.
- C. The allocated funds for flower assistance will be paid directly to the florist. It is the responsibility of the primary contact to have the florist prepare and submit an itemized billing statement to the Benefits Coordinator. This benefit does not exceed $175.00, and the primary contact will be responsible for paying costs above and beyond the benefit allotment.
